Long Term Travel: USA

- For employees, travelling to European Country for more than 30 days, would be eligible to get Rs. 1,00,000 per month and additional days would be considered on a pro-rate basis for long term travel calculations.

Important : For pro-rate calculations, 30 days would be considered as a base for any month.

These per diem amount include food, beverages, internal city transfers, laundry, phone/ communication and dry cleaning. Employees are expected to adhere to these per diem rates while traveling.

Important : Per-diems would start from the day of landing until the day of leaving the country. Also, as per the organizational communication, the employee travelling is not eligible to resign for 9 months from the date of resuming office in India.

Intercity Transfer

Organization will cover any intercity travel expenses incurred by the traveling member. To facilitate these payments, a Forex card will be provided to the member. However, prior to the travel date, the member must submit their intercity travel plan.

Supporting Bills and Taxation

Employees are required to submit supporting bills for all expenses incurred during the international travel. In the absence of supporting bills, the per diems will be taxable. For example : For Japan: If the employee produces supporting bill of Rs. 3,000, the rest Rs. 1,500 will be taxable.

Travel Preparatory Allowance

In addition to the per diem rates, a one time travel preparatory allowance of Rs. 5,000 will be given to employees for their first time travel internationally for business purposes. This amount will be Rs. 10,000 for management representative. This amount is given to preparation expenses for the travel. The expenses should be relevant to the employees' travel, such as luggage, clothes, food items, footwear. Required supporting bills need to be submitted to avoid taxes on the amount.

Travel Insurance

Tntra will take travel insurance for employees wherever it is available.

Process

Employees must submit all travel-related expenses for reimbursement within 15 days of their return from the trip on the HRStop portal. All expenses must be accompanied by valid receipts and must adhere to the per diem rates outlined in this policy. The Any expenses that exceed the per diem rates must be approved in writing by the management.

Passport

All employees, whether they have to travel or not, are requested to keep their passport ready. As per international laws, passports with less than 6 months validity from the date of return from travel are not valid.

Behaviour

During client interactions, employees should maintain a polite and business-like demeanor. They should avoid discussing or indulging in private matters and not interfere with the personal lives of clients or POCs. Employees should also be aware that laws of the country being visited will be different and they are responsible for any act of misconduct or misbehaviour that leads to legal action against them. In such cases, Tntra will not be held responsible.

Travel Safety

Employees are responsible for their own safety while traveling internationally for business purposes. They must take appropriate precautions to avoid any potential risks or dangers, and they must comply with any travel warnings or advisories issued by the government.

Implementation

This policy will be effective from 01-Apr-2023. All employees who travel internationally for business purposes must adhere to this policy in order to ensure compliance with company policies and procedures.

Review

This policy will be reviewed and updated as necessary by the HR team to ensure compliance with the latest regulations.
