Leave Policy

Objective

The objective of this policy is to define the types and entitlement of leaves and provide the guidelines for its administration.

Applicability

This policy is applicable to all the employees of Tntra.

Types of Leaves

Sr. No	Leave Type	Entitlement
1	Emergency Leaves	08 working days
2	Regular Leaves	24 working days
3	Maternity Leave	Maximum of 26 weeks up to 2 children; Maximum up to 12 weeks for more than 2 children

Note – Employees are not eligible to avail any regular leaves during the probation period.

Prior Approval in case of Planned Activity

The employee who wants to avail leaves shall apply it on HRStop well in time, in case of planned activity and get prior approval before proceeding for the leave. Some examples of the planned activities are elaborated for better understanding i.e., to attend the marriage/other Ceremonies, to visit the Government offices, visit out of city, Medical Test/checkup etc.

Leave Intimation

Number of continuous Leaves required	Regular Leave
Half Day	At least before 1 Working Day
1-2 Leaves	At least before 3 Working Days
3-7 Leaves	At least before 15 Working Days
8-15 Leaves	At least before 30 Calendar Days
More than 15 Leaves	At least before 45 Calendar Days

- Working Days : Monday to Friday
- Calendar Days: Monday to Sunday

In case of Emergency Leave, the reporting manager needs to be informed by a call, before availing these leaves. In case, the employee is not in a situation to contact reporting manager, a family member can also inform. While availing these leaves, alternative owner of your planned work should be communicated to Reporting manager.

Note - The Regular Leaves & Emergency leaves are not adjustable. In case one of them has been consumed, an employee can apply the leave from HRStop through "LOP" request.

General Guidelines for main types of Leaves

Regular Leaves

- 2 leaves will be credited to your account per month on pro-rata basis after the confirmation. These leaves will be credited on 1st of every month.
- These are the planned leaves and can be used for any purpose.
- Max 18 regular leaves will be encashed at the end of each financial year. Basic Salary of the financial year will be considered for the leave encashment.
- Pending regular leaves can be carry forwarded for maximum one quarter after the end of the financial year. After one quarter, the pending regular leaves will be encashed considering the Basic salary of the previous financial year.
- Need to apply leave on the HR Portal. Only approved leaves can be availed. In case the leave is not approved, the leave availed will be considered as “Leave Without Pay”. (Note – It is mandatory for the reporting manager to approve/reject the applied leaves of their team member before the leave day.)
- For any reason, if employee has to part the ways, then he/she can avail this leave based on the approval.
- No leaves will be credited while the employee is on the maternity leaves.
- Regular Leaves cannot be clubbed with Maternity leaves.

Emergency Leaves

- 8 Emergency Leaves will be credited per annum at the beginning of the financial year. In case, an employee joins post the beginning of the financial year, leaves will be credited in their account as per the pro-rata basis.
- These are not planned leaves. However, can be applied in advance for any planned medical appointments or planned surgeries etc. Employees can avail it for any medical/ health purpose only. (Note: This is for employee, their family members and relatives health. In case of family or relatives health issues, related documents needs to be submitted. Medical certificate needs to be uploaded in the “Document” category of HRStop)
- These leaves cannot be encashed and if not availed, will get lapsed at the end of every financial year.
- For more than 3 emergency Sick Leaves, employee has to use their Regular leaves. System will not allow more than 3 consecutive leaves.
- An employee needs to apply the leave on the HR Portal within 2 days of resuming duty. Reporting managers will have to approve this leave. In case of medical certificate required, and not submitted, will attract “Leave Without Pay”.

- For any reason, employee has to part the ways, emergency leaves will be lapsed on the day of resignation.
- Emergency Leaves cannot be clubbed with Maternity leaves.
- Emergency Leaves will be turned to 0 for all the expecting mother from the day they announce their pregnancy and they are expected to utilize the maternity leaves or available paid leaves.
- Emergency leaves, will get lapsed at the end of Financial Year and can not carry forwarded or encashed at the end of financial year.
- Pending Emergency leaves in fractions can be utilized for the nearest round off number. For example, if an employee has 0.33 emergency leaves, he can use 0.5 leaves, in case if an employee has 0.67, he can use 1 emergency leave.

General Guidelines

Following are the few guidelines to avail any of the above leave type.

Leave Approval

If there is a scenario where an employee has applied for any of the leave but due to sudden case, his/her plan is cancelled and attends the office, it's mandatory for him/her to send the cancel request for his applied leave. If the cancellation request has not been applied, by default the applied leave will be considered as Approved only.

Note – If leaves are not approved/disapproved by TL till the date of the leave then it will be considered deemed to be approved.

Paternity Leave

Male Employees will be granted paternity leave for 5 continuous working days.

- The leave should be availed within two weeks' time of the birth of the child.

- This will be applicable up to a maximum of two confinements during your tenure in Tntra.

Available Leaves Utilization for Wedding Purpose

- An employee will be allowed a marriage leave for a maximum of 20 working days only.
- The employee needs to apply for marriage leave 2 months prior to the date of commencement of leave. (Note: An employee can apply for Marriage Leave in the HRStop as a Regular Leave/LOP.)

Long leaves

Employees are allowed to take a maximum of 10 working days of continuous leaves.

- This kind of long leaves will be allowed only once in a year.
- If an employee is planning for such leaves, then he/she needs to apply it before 45 calendar days. Approval will depend on the status of the project and pending tasks.
- Any unplanned/ emergency leave prior to planned leaves or announced leaves or in continuation with other applied leaves or announced leaves will be considered as LOP. (For e.g. XYZ Employee has applied for leave from 2nd November to 10th November & if he/she will take unplanned leave on 11th & 12th November 2022 for any reason (health or personal) then leave taken on 11th and 12th November will be considered as LOP.) also in case a leave taken on 1st November will be considered as Loss of Pay (LOP).
- Also, in the above example, if unplanned leaves are availed, both on 1st November and 11th and 12th November will attract LOPs for all the leaves taken from 1st November to 12th November.
- We expect everyone to get in touch with their leaders before planning leaves at least 45 calendar days in advance to avoid denial of leaves.
- Management would have right to reject any approved leaves to meet any business requirements or commitments.

Compensatory Off

Compensatory Off is eligible where an employee has to work for above the assigned tasks to achieve the deadline of the project. For allowing the compensatory off, the decision can be taken by the team leader before inviting team members to work on holidays or weekends. Once an employee is conveyed by team leader then only they can apply it from the HRStop. After applying compensatory off, 1st approval is required from the team leader and then final approval will be given by CTO/ BU Head.

- For up to 5 hours working on holiday or weekends, a half day comp-off can be applied. Leaders need to justify while approving the comp-offs.
- For up to 8 hours working on holiday or weekends, a half day comp-off can be applied. Leaders need to justify while approving the comp-offs.

All unutilized Compensatory offs, can be carry forwarded to the next financial year for up to one quarter and can not be encashed. After the carry forward, unutilized comp-offs will be lapsed.

Leave Encasement

- Regular leaves can be accumulated only for one financial year, up to a maximum of 18 working days at any given time. Regular leave payment would be calculated as per the “Basic” component in the current salary.

Holidays

Holidays commemorating events of national, social, and religious significance are offered to employees. Apart from scheduled weekend/earned & casual leaves, there will be 8 paid holidays every year. Holidays’ list will be put up every year in December and accordingly will be applicable.

No-Fault Attendance System

The organization follows a no-fault attendance system. In a no-fault attendance system, if an employee takes leaves without prior approval/valid reasons, a warning would be given. If the pattern is found to be repeated several times, the organization is liable to take strict disciplinary action on the employee.

Note: All the queries/suggestions/complaints should be escalated to HR through Helpdesk on HRStop. All the employees must follow this path.
