

PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

TNTRA INDIA

Released by People Management

Message from Leadership

Tntra reaffirms its commitment to equality and safety at the workplace. This POSH policy represents our dedication to fostering a culture of trust, dignity, and inclusivity.

Policy Statement: Tntra is committed to fostering a workplace environment where every employee is treated with dignity and respect, free from harassment of any kind. This POSH policy ensures compliance with The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013 (SHWW Act). Any instance of sexual harassment will be promptly addressed, and corrective action will be taken. False or frivolous complaints will also be considered a policy violation.

Applicability & Scope

1. Applicability

This policy applies to all employees of Tntra, including:

- Permanent, temporary, contractual, and trainees.
- Employees at workplaces, client sites, and during company-related activities or events.

2. Workplace Definition

Workplace includes:

- All Tntra offices and premises where business is conducted.
 - Locations for offsite company activities or client interactions.
 - Social or business gatherings with potential work impact.

Sexual Harassment Defined

Sexual harassment includes one or a series of unwelcome acts, such as:

1. Unwelcome verbal, written, or physical contact or advances.
2. Requests for sexual favors.
3. Display of sexually explicit material or inappropriate jokes.
4. Conduct interfering with work performance or creating a hostile environment.
5. Implied or explicit threats affecting employment.

Examples of Inappropriate Behavior

- Quid Pro Quo: Favoritism or threats tied to compliance with sexual requests.
- Hostile Environment: Behavior creating intimidation, humiliation, or health risks.

Prevention and Redressal

1. Employee Responsibilities

All employees must uphold a respectful and harassment-free workplace. Inappropriate behavior should be reported promptly.

2. Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

An ICC has been established for time-bound redressal. Current ICC members include:

- Ms. Tejal Bhatt (Presiding Officer)
- Ms. Rucha Chauhan Sinh (External Member)
- Members from Vadodara and Ahmedabad offices as mentioned below:

ICC Vadodara:

1. Ms. Shainy Darji
2. Ms. Palak Parmar
3. Mr. Nimish Mittal

ICC Ahmedabad:

1. Ms. Pooja Zala
2. Mr. Parth Barot

The ICC will:

- Review complaints confidentially.
- Recommend actions to Management.
- Maintain compliance with natural justice principles.

Complaint Procedure

1. Filing a Complaint:
 - Complaints should be submitted within three months of the incident.
 - Extensions may be granted by the ICC in specific circumstances.
 - Complaints can be submitted by:
 - The affected individual.
 - Legal heirs or authorized representatives (in cases of incapacity).
2. ICC Investigation:
 - ICC will inform the respondent within seven days of receiving a complaint.
 - A thorough inquiry will be conducted within 90 days.
 - Both parties will be informed of findings and recommendations.
3. Conciliation:
 - At the complainant's request, ICC may mediate, excluding monetary settlements.

- If terms are breached, the ICC will initiate further actions.
 - 4. Sanctions:
 - Penalties range from warnings to dismissal, depending on severity.

Important Notes

- Complaints against ICC members will result in reconstitution of the committee.
 - False testimony or evidence will result in disciplinary action.
 - All workplaces must display this policy and ICC details prominently.

Sanctions and Disciplinary Measures

Violations of this policy may result in:

- Verbal or written warnings.
 - Adverse performance reviews.

 - Review Schedule: Annually, or as required by law or organizational changes.

FAQs

1. What if the incident involves a client or vendor?
The ICC will take necessary steps, including liaising with external parties, to address the complaint.
2. Can I report anonymously?
While anonymous reports may be challenging to act upon, employees are encouraged to report directly to the ICC to ensure a thorough investigation.
3. What happens if the accused retaliates?
Retaliation is strictly prohibited and will result in additional disciplinary action.
